Dear families,

I hope this letter finds you well?

We are reaching maximum capacity for our critical worker and vulnerable groups to attend school in some year groups. Vulnerable children are those with an EHCP or social worker.

We ask you to co-operate with us for critical worker places during this difficult time and don't take a place if:

- There is an adult at home during the day who is not a critical worker.
- You can care for your child safely at home (even if you are a critical worker)
- You are not working on the days that you have booked a place for your child.

We need to reduce the number of people in our school as much as possible to keep the risk of infection to a minimum. We have not yet asked for current proof of work because we pride ourselves on a positive mutual relationship of trust.

If we do reach capacity, we will need to prioritise places to critical workers who:

- Are NHS workers involved in COVID-19 health response.
- Emergency services.
- Social care staff.
- Education staff.

Thank you, as always, for working with us.

Stay safe.
